

Now some news about a course from one of our new tutors, Gary Simpson.

From Wednesday 4th September (1 – 3 PM), Gary will be running eight-weeks of Art for All classes held at Front Street.

Gary will be following the successful format used by both Keith and Ted; tutored freestyle painting classes. In these classes, participants will be painting (or drawing) a subject of their own choosing, in their preferred media and Gary will be on hand to provide expert advice and guidance.

A donation of £6 per class is requested.

If you are interested in a place on the course, please contact Wendy on info@newbigginartscentre.org 07766 856365 or 01670 708269

- Choose what you want to paint (or draw)
- Select what media you are going to use
- If you need it, ask Gary how to get started and how to plan the creative process
- Get started!
- Gary will then be on hand to;
  - Give expert advice and guidance
  - Teach you the techniques required to do what you want to do
  - Help you learn from your efforts and those of your classmates

- Give you as much (or as little) support as you want or need
- Explain where things have gone wrong and where things have worked out perfectly
- Help you develop your own style and improve the quality of your work.

The Tutor

Gary has a BTec Foundation in Art and Design from North Tyneside College. Since then he has gained 20 years of experience as an artist and a tutor (he worked at Northgate at the same time as Ted) and developed his own unique styles in painting and his excellent sculpture work.
